

BUSINESS FIRST

Thursday, December 6, 2007

Event to celebrate 13 'hot' local companies

Business First of Louisville

Enterprise Corp. and the High Impact Program will hold an event this week to celebrate the success and potential of 13 area companies.

The event, called The Hot Dozen Holiday Showcase, will be held from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 12, at the Old National Bank in Preston Pointe, 333 E. Main St.

The companies that will be recognized are: 3DR LLC, Conexus, Dormbuys.com, Fulfillment Concepts, Genscape, Maximum ASP, Modern Gigabyte, Nomad Innovations, Peptides International, Resonant Vibes, Skyway USA, Smoothstone IP Communications and ZirMed.

Louisville Metro Mayor Jerry Abramson and the clients and partners of Enterprise Corp. and the High Impact Program will be in attendance.

The Hot Dozen Holiday Showcase is free to attend, but an RSVP is required by Monday, Dec. 10.

The High Impact Program is a public-private partnership formed by Louisville-Jefferson County Metro Government and GLI that identifies and serves fast-growth companies. The Enterprise Corp. is a division of GLI that supports entrepreneurship.